

Imaging Result

Patient: [REDACTED] MRN: JH36316421 DOB: 10/26/1943 Sex: Male Pt. Class:	Study Status: Final Authorizing Provider: Cecillia Lui Accession #: 15802213 Reason for Exam: s/p robotic whipple Ordering Diagnosis: None Specified
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Exam: XR Chest AP Portable	Exam Ended: 04/ 08/ 2016 5:50 AM
----------------------------	----------------------------------

Exam 1: DGP 1031 - CHEST AP PORTABLE - Apr 08, 2016 05:50
 Acc#:15802213

RESULT: CLINICAL HISTORY: 72-year-old male patient with fever, status post robotic Whipple procedure.

COMPARISON: None.

TECHNIQUE: Portable semiupright AP view of the chest.

IMPRESSION:

Lungs are hypoinflated. There is linear opacities in the left lower lobe, likely representing atelectatic changes.

Small prominent lymph nodes in the right hilar region, measuring up to 9 mm.

No evidence of consolidation or pneumothorax.

Mild cardiomegaly. Tortuous thoracic aorta.

Midsternotomy surgical wires are noted.

Partially visualized abdominal drain projecting over the left upper quadrant.

... Created By GA01A. Last update: Apr 8 2016 10:42A.

IMAGES AND INTERPRETATION PERSONALLY READ BY:

GULCIN ALTINOK MD

RESULT ELECTRONICALLY SIGNED

Electronically Signed By: Gulcin Altinok, MD on 4/8/2016 10:42 AM